Mr. James Cleveland

Dear Sir:

This will confirm our agreement as follows:

1. We understand you are entering into an agreement with Atlantic Records concerning a recording session featuring Aretha Franklin, which will be conducted at the New Temple Missionary Baptist Church located at 8734 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California. In this connection, you hereby grant to us all motion picture rights of every kind and character whatsoever in and to all performances and other activities at said recording session. It is understood that this session will take place on two separate days, i.e., January 13 and January 14, 1972.

2. We agree that in the event we shall actually produce and release, in any media, a motion picture comprised substantially in whole of scenes photographed and recorded hereunder, we will, within 5 days after such release, pay you the sum of $1500.00, and, in addition thereto, we will pay to each of the members of the Church Choir who participate in the recording sessions and whose voices are on the sound track of such motion picture, an amount equal to Screen Actors Guild minimum union scale for singers for the two days involved. You agree to obtain and deliver to us signed clearances from each of such Choir members before we shall be obligated to make such payments. You also agree to deliver to us, concurrently with the execution of this agreement, a location permit in our usual form executed by said New Temple Missionary Baptist Church, copies of which are provided to you herewith.

3. Without limiting paragraph 1 hereof, to the extent that material recorded hereunder consists of original musical material owned or controlled by you, you hereby grant to us unlimited, but not exclusive, synchronization and performing rights in and to such material.

4. You represent and warrant that you have full power and authority to enter into this agreement, and to permit us to make motion picture and sound recordings of said recording session.

Very truly yours,
